Bring your vintage camping stuff and head to Buellton for a weekend of hanging out with your vintage buddies

3rd Annual Vintage Trailer Bash September 14-16, 2012

Come join us for a weekend of retro vintage as we descend upon the Danish hamlet of Buellton, California. Located 45 minutes north of Santa Barbara, Buellton is a great place to get together to strut your vintage stuff. So pack it, hitch it and drive it to the central coast.

We'll be at Flying Flags RV Park. All sites are paved and offer full hookups. There's a pool, jacuzzi, lots of shady trees, great eats and lots of things to do close by.

See details on the next page and mark your calendar now to attend. We've got 160 spots reserved this year. Register today as we will sell out quickly.
